ELIGIBILITY TO MARCH:

As set down by RSL NSW ANZAC DAY MARCH COMMITTEE in item (2) below.

(2) RSL NSW policy, which allows personnel to participate in the march, is that they must be members of, or eligible to join the RSL. ONE RELATIVE of a deceased or disabled relative, wearing the relative's medals on the right breast, will be allowed to march with the relative's unit, with the permission of the unit. Children are not permitted to accompany marching personnel.

(3) As there are no longer any members of Units from WW1, we have been given permission to form up and march as "Australian World War One Descendants". (The clear intention is that medals are not to be split up. Only one descendant may march, representing the deceased or disabled relative. The March Committee are happy to allow responsible children over 10 to march, provided they march without an adult.)
